NUX NRO-6 | VOX-in-a-box

NUX Reissue Series 63' Diamond: VOX AC30 inspired overdrive

NUX's popular Reissue Series now includes the 63' Diamond, an analog overdrive pedal inspired by the iconic Vox AC-30 tube amp. This amp has been a cornerstone in pop music history for over 60 years, powering the guitar sounds of bands like The Beatles, Queen, and U2.

The NRO-6 captures not only the punchy and crunchy sound of the VOX AC-30 but also its distinctive looks and controls. Seasoned AC-30 users will be able to dial in their favorite settings instantly, while newcomers will quickly discover a wide range of inspiring tones. The NRO-6 is versatile, making it a great fit for a variety of musical styles that require low to medium gain overdrive.
